

CHRISTINE LASHLEY

Bio

Christine's impressionistic images are filled with merged color, lush brush strokes and a sense of sparkling light. She studied in Paris at the Parsons Art Institute and the Sorbonne and continued on to earn her BFA at Washington University in St. Louis. She has exhibited her work nationally and internationally, and she has been selected to participate in dozens of prestigious outdoor painting competitions such as Plein Air Texas, Olmsted, Plein Air Easton, and Telluride. She has won numerous awards for her work including "Best Landscape" at Oil Painter's of America 27th National juried show and First Place at Telluride Plein Air (2019). Media coverage of her artwork and painting style includes: Plein Air Magazine (cover and feature article); Plein Air Podcasts, Lilledahl DVD "Paintings that Sparkle," Oil Painters of America Blog, the Washington Post, and North Light Books. An art teacher for 20 years, Christine is a signature member of: Oil Painters of America, Salmagundi Club NYC, Plein Air South (PAP-SE); and the Washington Society of Landscape Painters.
